PORT MOODY FOUNDATION ANNOUNCES 2013 GRANT RECIPIENT

PORT MOODY, BRITISH COLUMBIA, CANADA, October 14, 2013. The Port Moody Foundation is pleased to announce the Recipients of the Foundation's 2013 Grants.

A Grant award of $1,000.00 was presented to Children of the Street Society for their "Taking Care of others, Taking care of Ourselves program". The Foundation's Grant will be used to deliver workshops in Port Moody that reach over 450 Port Moody children.

The Zajac Ranch Society received a Grant of $1,600.00 which will allow 3 Port Moody children with "medical needs" to attend the Zajac Ranch Camp at Stave Lake, BC. The camp provides "...experiences that empower children of all abilities to participate, foster the development of life-long skills and independence and, create lasting opportunities for friendship and fulfillment."

The third recipient was the Port Moody Farmers Market in partnership with the Port Moody Police Department's Green Team. A Grant of $1,500.00 was awarded to help fund the garden shed and shared use garden equipment for the Port Moody Police Department

Community Garden established next to the Port Moody Public Safety Building at 3051 St Johns Street.

A Grant ward of $900.00 was also awarded to POCOMO Meals on Wheels Society. The Grant will be used to support the Society's program that delivers this valuable service to Port Moody residents.

The Port Moody Foundation is a non-profit Community Foundation focused on supporting social, cultural, ecological and recreational activities that benefit the citizens of Port Moody. Established in 1989, the Foundation has raised money for several charitable and community driven causes. It is recognized as a proud sponsor for a better life in the community and welcomes any gifts or bequests from residents, businesses, associations and other parties to build our Capital Funds Resources.
